May 2011

NEWSLETTER

Dear Qualitative Researchers,

Welcome to the ESA's Research Network 28 Qualitative Methods latest newsletter bringing you the current events in the area of qualitative sociology.

The present newsletter can also be found on the European Sociological Association's site (http://www.europeansociology.org/) and on the site of Qualitative Sociology Review (http://www.qualitativesociology.pl/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=38&Itemid=29). Editors are Charli, Professor of sociology at the University of Lodz, and President of ESA Research Network 28 Qualitative Methods.

We are delighted to announce that the third issue of Qualitative Sociology Review is now available online. It is a free, open access, peer-reviewed online publication. If you wish to acquaint with its current contents, please visit the following site:
http://www.qualitativesociology.pl/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=38&Itemid=29
PLEASE MAKE SURE YOU READ THE LATEST ISSUES!

(source: Internet)

NEWS

Our intention is to ensure the integration of worldwide qualitative researchers community. Therefore, we would like to announce that we have created a mailing list which will be used for the distribution of conferences and highly recommended books published by us (or to access, enjoy and profit!

CALLS FOR PAPERS

Psychology Learning and Teaching
Special Issue: Teaching Qualitative Research Methods

Guest Editors:
Stephen Gibson (York St John University)
Virginia Braun (University of Central Lancashire)

This special issue aims to foreground issues with and concerns for the teaching of qualitative methods with a view to bringing together a diverse collection of research reports and discussion pieces that will stimulate debate among all those who are interested in the teaching of psychology in higher education.

Deadline for Papers: May 31, 2011
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.wiseweb.co.uk/jpe

(source: Internet)

International Journal on Population Research
Special Issue: Health and Well-Being of Immigrant Children and Youth

Lead Guest Editor
Cherylynn Basaen, Department of Social Work, College of Health and Human Studies, University of the Fraser Valley, Canada

The purpose of this special issue is to provide a platform through which researchers, as well as program and policy makers, can learn about the various factors that contribute to the health and well-being of immigrant children and youth. Papers are welcome that address, but are not limited to, the following areas of research in the special issue topic and how we can intervene:

- Social determinants of immigrant children's health and well-being
- Mental health issues among immigrant children and youth, and their families
- Health and well-being of immigrant children and youth, with a focus on ethnicity, generation status, ability, age and social class
- Health and well-being issues associated with children and youth that are region and/or country specific
- The embodiment of stress in immigration processes, culture shock, refugee flight, human trafficking, etc.)
- Issues of resilience

Deadline for Papers: June 15, 2011
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.hindawi.com/journals/ijpr/si/cc/

(source: Internet)

Health Sociology Review
Special Issue: Lifestyle Science: Self-healing, re-production and DIY

Editors:
Rick Iedema, University of Technology Sydney, Australia
Irena Vilajeliova, University of Western Sydney, Australia

The purpose of this special issue of Health Sociology Review is to bring together international viewpoints and research that critically examine the rise of lifestyle science and practices of self-healing and re-production. Potential topics for papers addressing the following issues are welcome:

- Alternative and self-healing practices that go beyond conventional medicine and publicly available, mainstream information
- The empowering of the body and new opportunities for citizens to exercise the rights of the individual as knowledgeable agent
- The role of DIY practices on health care industries and services;
- The embodiment of new normalities: gender, class, refugee flight, human trafficking, etc.)
- The responses that are being mobilised by establishment science;
- The role of technology in lifestyle science and practices: from questioning the health care industry;
- Knowledge 'scarcity': knowledge as commodity, expert or shareholder and how this relates proceeding
- The role of the media in lifestyle science practices

Deadline for Papers: September 01, 2011
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.europeansociology.org/news/news.asp?id=212#aac31a4f

(source: Internet)

Inquiry in education
Spring 2012 Themed Issue

All articles that address the use of video in enhancing experience research are warmly invited. These include research studies using video as a data source, use of video by preservice and inservice candidates to document their practice as part of their preparation, and articles that address how to manage the qualitative analysis of video segments.

Deadline for Papers: a continuing basis.
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.soca.edu/Users/DR/TQR/default.pdf

(source: Internet)

Publish your research in Current Sociology

Current Sociology is a fully peer-reviewed international journal that publishes original research and innovative critical commentary both on current debates within sociology as a developing discipline, and the development of modern societies in a globalizing world. The Journal's interest is in articles renewing sociological perspectives and theories, and in articles that address issues of the day. Its focus is especially on developments in sociological theory and areas of advanced inquiry.

Deadline for Papers: ongoing
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.uk.sagepub.com/journalsProdDesc.nav?prodId=Journal200820&ct=ctoa&type=rac

(source: Internet)

EUROPEAN INTERSECTIONS NETWORK

intersections.org

The purpose of this newly launched forum is both to provide a platform through which symbolic interactionists, ethnomethodologists, conversation analysts, those working in the programmatic intersections between these traditions, and those working within the associated fields can communicate; and to encourage joint working and collaborative research.

The forum is currently hosted by the University of Leicester as a collaborative reading of Harvey Sacks' Lectures on Conversation.

Join European Intersection Network by visiting the URL http://intersections.org/ and following the instructions to register.

(source: Internet)

SERIES NUMBER BOOKS IN SOCIAL SCIENCES

Linking Theory and Empirical Research

The Berlin Summer School in Social Sciences seeks to promote young researchers by strengthening their methodological competence and their ability to link theory and research. The summer school is designed for doctoral students who already began planning their doctoral projects in detail or are currently working on it.

August 22-29, 2011
Venue: Berlin, Germany
Organizer: The Berlin Graduate School of Social Sciences (BGSS) at Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin, in cooperation with the Berlin Social Science Center (WZB).
Deadline for applications: May 15, 2011
Contact: e-mail: bgss@hu-berlin.de
Johannes Gerschewski e-mail: gerschewski@wzb.eu
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.berlin-graduate-school-social-sciences.de/berlin-summer-school-in-social-sciences

(source: Internet)

JOURNAL OF LANGUAGE AND POLITICS

The Journal of Language and Politics represents a forum for analysing and discussing the various dimensions in the interplay of language and politics.

Therefore, we would like to announce that the two latest issues of Journal of Language and Politics (10:1 10:2) will be soon available on-line!

Visit the following site to access the table of contents:
http://www.benjamins.nl/cgi-bin/t_bookview.cgi?bookid=JLP_10_1
PLEASE MAKE SURE YOU READ THE LATEST ISSUES!

CONFERENCES

IV INTERNATIONAL INTERDISCIPLINARY CONFERENCE THE "YET" DECADE: RETHINKING REALITY

Date: August 31 - September 03, 2011
Site: Bogdanci, Macedonia
Organizer: Faculty of Philosophy, Politics & Ethics, University of Brighton, Centre for Ethics and Law, University of Leicester, Centre for Research in Applied Ethics, Manchester Metropolitan, Edge Hill University, Centre for Research in Ethics and Globalisation, University of Groningen
Topics: The aim of the conference is to bring together the "YET" decade, which began in one event: the Yugoslav wars, and the "YET" decade which began with the Arab Spring Events and the Pentagon Therefore, this interdisciplinary conference seeks critically to rethink this last decade
Deadline for abstracts: May 31, 2011
Contact: e-mail: gjorchevski@yahoo.com
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.fzf.ukim.edu.mk/Conferences/Call_for_Papers_Bogdanci_Yet_Decade_Rethinking_Reality.pdf

(source: Internet)

International Conference on Mobile Learning: Society & E-Management

Date: September 08-09, 2011
Site: Prague, Czech Republic
Organizer: Czech Technical University
Topics: The conference seeks to produce an interdisciplinary dialogue between academic scientists, leading engineers, industry researchers and scholar students. All contributions that fit the broad theme of the conference are welcome.
Deadline for abstracts: May 30, 2011
Contact: e-mail: ijet@kmlabs.com (regular registration)
e-mail: ijet@kmlabs.com (late registration)
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.ijet.com

(source: Internet)

Subcultures, Popular Music and Social Change
A Cross-Disciplinary Symposium

Date: September 15-16, 2011
Site: London Metropolitan University
Organizer: Research Centre for Communication and Culture, London Metropolitan University (Dr Hugh Chignell, Dr Shaun Chamberlin, Dr Gareth Palmer, Dr Sarah Raine), Faculty of Humanities, University of Leicester, Keith Gildart (University of Sussex), John Street (University of East Anglia), Pete Webb (Goldsmiths, University of London), Dr Sheila Whiteley (Salford University)
Topics: The aim of this conference is to bring together academic and multidisciplinary discussions; this conference will explore the relation between subcultures and their historical context. The conference will also explore the relation between subcultures and popular music, and the role of popular music in social change.
Deadline for abstracts: May 31, 2011
Contact: e-mail: r.chignell@londonmet.ac.uk
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.cpa.cf.ac.uk/cfp/Subcult.Pop.Symp.Sept11.pdf

(source: Internet)

ESF-LiU Conference
Eco-Chic: Connecting Ethical, Sustainable and Elite Consumption

Date: October 10-14, 2011
Site: Visby, Sweden
Organizer: European Science Foundation (ESF), Linköping University (LiU)
Topics: The following questions will be discussed: What form does eco-chic assume in Western and emerging economies? Is eco-chic a force for good? Is it a force for change? Is it a force for bad? Is it a force for preservation? Is it a mixed ecological and social force? Is eco-chic become so popular in the formulation of new identities?, Can eco-chic, with its mix of consumption and idealism, make a genuine contribution to solving the ecological crisis?
Deadline for abstracts: May 30, 2011
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.liu.se/forskning/konferenser/esf-liu/eco-chic?l=en

(source: Internet)

International Divorce Conference

Date: October 27-29, 2011
Site: Visby, Italy
Organizer: European Network on Divorce Research, Donatea Centre for Research on Social Dynamics at Bocconi University
Topics: The conference takes a broad view to studies on divorce (causes, consequences, theoretical and methodological issues) and welcomes contributions from different disciplines (Sociology, Demography, Economics, Psychology, Law).
Deadline for abstracts: May 15, 2011
Contact: e-mail: divorce2011@unibocconi.it
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.uni-giessen.de/cms/fbz/fb03/soziologie/03ssp1/ssp1.pd

(source: Internet)

The Effects of Global Learning: Teaching the World about the World

Date: November 30 - December 02, 2011
Site: Hong Kong
Organizer: Worldwide Forum on Education and Culture
Topics: Submission of papers which address, but are not limited to, the following issue areas is encouraged: Global Learning Curriculum, Global Learning Pedagogy, Global Learning Assessment, Global Learning Technology, Global Learning Environment, Teaching and Learning Religion, Education for Individual, Communication Across Countries, Entrepreneurship and Global Business, Liberal Arts in International Education, Global Citizenship, World Politics and Practices, International Mobility
Deadline for abstracts: September 30, 2011
Registration fee: $275
Contact: e-mail: editor@worldwideforum.org
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.theeffectsofgloballearning.org/1.html

(source: Internet)

Second International Conference
Popular Culture and Education

Date: December 07-10, 2011
Site: Hong Kong
Organizer: Hong Kong Institute of Education, Centre for Popular Culture and Education (CPCE)
Topics: The Organizer would like to encourage the submission of papers that fit the broad theme of the conference.
Deadline for abstracts: May 31, 2011
Registration fee: HK$2,000 (Early bird registration); HK$2,500 (Late registration); HK$700 (Student registration)
Contact: e-mail: hkiecpce@ied.edu.hk
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.ied.edu.hk/cpce/conference/index.htm

(source: Internet)

Religions, Science and Technology in Cultural Contexts: Dynamics of Change

Date: March 01-03, 2012
Site: Trondheim, Norway
Organizer: Department of Archaeology and Religious Studies of the Norwegian University of Science and Technology
Topics: By exploring religion-science-technology contemporary interactions between religion, science and technology a more complex understanding may be reached of the areas and ways in which they overlap, correspond, contradict and influence each other. The conference will explore the dynamics of change in these interactions, and the role of religion in processes of change, particularly as related to attitudes to such issues as the environment and climate change, the economy, welfare, life expectancy, popular entertainment and consumerism.
Deadline for abstracts: September 01, 2011
Registration fee: 2500 NOK
Contact: e-mail: Tuva.stein.reksten@ntnu.no
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.ntnu.no/ikos/conferences/rstc

(source: Internet)

2nd Interdisciplinary Tourism Research Conference

Date: April 24-29, 2012
Site: Vienna, Austria
Organizer: Modul, International Journal of Tourism and Hospitality Research
Topics: In order to stimulate a multidisciplinary forum for debate on studies regarding all aspects of tourism, the conference would like to encourage the submission of papers that fit the broad theme of the conference.
Deadline for abstracts: November 30, 2011
Registration fee: 300 €
Contact: e-mail: tkraml@zuehlke.edu.fh
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://www.modul.ac.at/en/research/tourismkonferenz/

(source: Internet)

RC33 Eighth International Conference on Social Science Methodology

Date: July 09-12, 2012
Site: University of Sydney, Australia
Organizer: The International Committee for Social and Political Research Incorporated (ICSPR)
Topics: The theme of the conference is the methodological challenges which the goal of contributing to the scientific development of social science research, particularly by building the evidence base to evaluate policy, will pose for the social science methodology community in the 21st century. The conference will also welcome papers on other methodological issues and debates that are not directly related to the theme and discussion of the philosophical paradigms that underpin the logic of social research, issues in the formulation of research questions, research design, data collection, data management and analysing data. Research techniques, innovations and developments will also be welcomed.
Deadline for abstracts: December 01, 2011
Contact: e-mail: RC33conference@anu.edu.au
For further information, please visit the following site:
http://conference.anu.edu.au/index.php/rc33/2012

(source: Internet)

Interdisciplinary Conference
Solidarity, Mutuality, Identity

Date: September 20-21, 2011
Site: Lodz, Poland
Organizer: Faculty of Philosophy and Sociology, University of Pannai, Czeltyn, Brazil
Topics: In the age of rapid socio-political changes, with deepening ethic and religious conflicts on one hand, and, on the other, a diminishing importance of traditional institutions, the economic crisis is not only a strong necessity for a reflection on the idea of solidarity. Therefore, this conference is devoted to
- Every kind of solidarity (ethnic, religious, economic, political, professional, ecological, global, etc.)
- will take place from 21st to 24th July 2011 in Kazan'(Germany)
Find more details on the following site: http://www.symbolicinteraction.de/

(source: Internet)

We are looking forward to meeting you in Gorycja and in Assisi!

We believe that the forgoing events brought you information that are attributable to your academic interests. Nonetheless, we would like to recommend you visiting the Conference Alerts site where the most information about conferences pertaining to a wide variety of academic subjects and disciplines can be found: http://www.conferencealerts.com/index.htm

If any of you wish to announce other Readers any events devoted to qualitative events that pertain to the area of sociology, all forms for the inclusion in the ESA's RN28 QM Newsletter are warmly welcome.

Please contact us by sending an e-mail to Krzysztof Konecki, President of ESA Research Network 28 Qualitative Methods
http://www.europeansociology.org/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=38&Itemid=29

TEXTBOOKS

In order to keep abreast of the European Sociological Association latest activities, you may wish to acquaint with ESA's Monthly Bulletin which can be found on the following site:
http://www.europeansociology.org/newsletter/esa_bul_201.pdf

NEWLY PUBLISHED

We would like to recommend you several books, from the area of sociology, that are now available at the bookstore:

Herold, David K. and Peter Marsh (2011) China in Cyberspace. Routledge.
Creating, collaborating, and internationalizing the online carnival. Routledge.

Seidman, Steven, Nancy Fischer and Chet Meeks (2011) Introducing the New Sexuality Studies. Routledge.

Sherry, John F. and Eileen Fischer (2011) Explorations in Consumer Culture Theory. Routledge.

Stenhouse, Rarven (2011) Civility, Culture and the American Dream. Stardom and Social Mobility. Routledge.

Hue, Sam (2011) Web 2.0. Routledge.

Thank you all for acquainting with the foregoing newsletter!
If any of you wish to make a suggestion for improving its contents, please contact us by sending an e-mail to Krzysztof Konecki, President of ESA Research Network 28 Qualitative Methods
http://www.europeansociology.org/index.php?option=com_content&task=view&id=38&Itemid=29

All your comments, suggestions and remarks would be highly appreciated!

Please feel free to forward this newsletter to a colleague or anyone else who may be interested in qualitative sociology.

Krzysztof Konecki
President of ESA Research Network 28 Qualitative Methods

Magdalena Wojciechowska
University of Lodz

On behalf of the Research Network 28 Qualitative Methods Chain Committee,

(source: Internet)